Plaintiff's Complaint

CR

1 I. SUMMARY

2 1. This is a civil rights action by plaintiff Chris Kohler ("Kohler") for 3 discrimination at the building, structure, facility, complex, property, land,
4 development, and/or surrounding business complex known as:

5 Vons #2360
6 845 College Boulevard
7 Oceanside, CA 92057
8 (hereafter "the Store")

9 2. Kohler seeks damages, injunctive and declaratory relief, attorney
10 fees and costs, against The Vons Companies, Inc. dba Vons #2360 (collectively
11 "Vons") pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, (42 U.S.C. §§
12 12101 et seq.), and related California statutes.

13 II. JURISDICTION

14 3. This Court has original jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 15 1343 for ADA claims.

16 4. Supplemental jurisdiction for claims brought under parallel
17 California law—arising from the same nucleus of operative facts—is predicated
18 on 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

19 5. Kohler's claims are authorized by 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202.

20 III. VENUE

21 6. All actions complained of herein take place within the jurisdiction
22 of the United States District Court, Southern District of California, and venue is 23 invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), (c).

24 IV. PARTIES

25 7. Vons owns, operates, or leases the Store, and consists of a person
26 (or persons), firm, or corporation.

27 8. Kohler was shot in the back in 1988, which left him paralyzed from 28 the waist down. Kohler requires the use of a wheelchair when traveling about in

1 public. Consequently, Kohler is “physically disabled,” as defined by all
2 applicable California and United States laws, and a member of the public whose 3 rights are protected by these laws.

4 V. FACTS

5 9. The Store is a sales or retail establishment, open to the public,
6 which is intended for nonresidential use and whose operation affects commerce.

7 10. Kohler visited the Store and encountered barriers (both physical and 8 intangible) that interfered with—if not outright denied—his ability to use and 9 enjoy the goods, services, privileges, and accommodations offered at the facility.
10 To the extent known by Kohler, the barriers at the Vons included, but are not 11 limited to, the following:

- 12 • There is no accessible path from the public transportation to the entrance 13 of the store;
- 14 • The tow away signage posted uses the term “handicapped;”
- 15 • The trash receptacle obstructs the path of travel to the entrance of the 16 store;
- 17 • The pottery counter does not have the required clear floor space;
- 18 • Of the six check-out stands provided, none are designated as being 19 accessible, nor have a sign stating that the checkstand(s) are to remain 20 open at all times for person with disabilities;
- 21 • The pay point machines are too high and out of the required reach range 22 limits;
- 23 • In the restroom, the toilet tissue dispenser protrudes into the clear 24 maneuvering space needed at the water closet;
- 25 • The paper towel dispenser interferes with the clear maneuvering space
26 needed at the water closet;
- 27 • The pipes underneath the lavatory are not properly wrapped; and,
28 • There is improper toe and knee clearance underneath the lavatory.

1 These barriers prevented Kohler from enjoying full and equal access.

2 11. Kohler was also deterred from visiting the Store because he knew
3 that the Store's goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, and 4 accommodations were unavailable to physically disabled patrons (such as 5 himself). He continues to be deterred from visiting the Store because of the 6 future threats of injury created by these barriers.

7 12. Kohler also encountered barriers at the Store, which violate state
8 and federal law, but were unrelated to his disability. Nothing within this 9 Complaint, however, should be construed as an allegation that Kohler is seeking 10 to remove barriers unrelated to his disability.

11 13. Vons knew that these elements and areas of the Store were 12 inaccessible, violate state and federal law, and interfere with (or deny) access to 13 the physically disabled. Moreover, Vons has the financial resources to remove 14 these barriers from the Store (without much difficulty or expense), and make the 15 facility accessible to the physically disabled. To date, however, Vons refuses to 16 either remove those barriers or seek an unreasonable hardship exemption to 17 excuse non-compliance.

18 14. At all relevant times, Vons has possessed and enjoyed sufficient 19 control and authority to modify the subject property to remove impediments to 20 wheelchair access and to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act
21 Accessibility Guidelines and Title 24 regulations. Vons has not removed such 22 impediments and have not modified the subject property to conform to 23 accessibility standards. Vons has intentionally maintained the subject property
24 in its current condition and has intentionally refrained from altering the subject
25 property so that it complies with the accessibility standards.

15. Kohler further alleges that the (continued) presence of barriers at the facility is so obvious as to establish Vons' discriminatory intent.¹ On information and belief, Kohler avers that evidence of this discriminatory intent includes Vons' refusal to adhere to relevant building standards; disregard for the building plans and permits issued for the facility; conscientious decision to the architectural layout (as it currently exists) at the facility; decision not to remove barriers from the facility; and allowance that Vons' property continues to exist in its non-compliant state. Kohler further alleges, on information and belief, that Vons is not in the midst of a remodel, and that the barriers present at the facility are not isolated (or temporary) interruptions in access due to maintenance or repairs.²

VI. FIRST CLAIM

Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990

Denial of "Full and Equal" Enjoyment and Use

16. Kohler incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 15 for this claim.

17. Title III of the ADA holds as a "general rule" that no individual shall be discriminated against on the basis of disability in the full and equal enjoyment (or use) of goods, services, facilities, privileges, and accommodations offered by any person who owns, operates, or leases a place of public accommodation. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(a).

18. Vons discriminated against Kohler by denying "full and equal enjoyment" and use of the goods, services, facilities, privileges or accommodations of the Store during each visit and each incident of deterrence.

² Id.; 28 C.F.R. § 36.211(b)

Kohler v. Vons

Plaintiff's Complaint

1 Failure to Remove Architectural Barriers in an Existing Facility

2 19. The ADA specifically prohibits failing to remove architectural
3 barriers, which are structural in nature, in existing facilities where such removal
4 is readily achievable. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv). The term “readily
5 achievable” is defined as “easily accomplishable and able to be carried out
6 without much difficulty or expense.” Id. § 12181(9).

7 20. When an entity can demonstrate that removal of a barrier is not 8 readily achievable, a failure to make goods, services, facilities, or 9 accommodations available through alternative methods is also specifically
10 prohibited if these methods are readily achievable. Id. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(v).

11 21. Here, Kohler alleges that Vons can easily remove the architectural 12 barriers at the Store without much difficulty or expense, and that Vons violated
13 the ADA by failing to remove those barriers, when it was readily achievable to 14 do so.

15 22. In the alternative, if it was not “readily achievable” for Vons to 16 remove the Store’s barriers, then Vons violated the ADA by failing to make the 17 required services available through alternative methods, which are readily 18 achievable.

19 Failure to Design and Construct an Accessible Facility

20 23. On information and belief, the Store was designed or constructed (or 21 both) after January 26, 1992—independently triggering access requirements
22 under Title III of the ADA.

23 24. The ADA also prohibits designing and constructing facilities for 24 first occupancy after January 26, 1993, that aren’t readily accessible to, and 25 usable by, individuals with disabilities when it was structurally practicable to do
26 so. 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(1).

25. Here, Vons violated the ADA by designing or constructing (or both) the Store in a manner that was not readily accessible to the physically disabled public—including Kohler—when it was structurally practical to do so.³

Failure to Make an Altered Facility Accessible

26. On information and belief, the Store was modified after January 26, 1992, independently triggering access requirements under the ADA.

27. The ADA also requires that facilities altered in a manner that affects (or could affect) its usability must be made readily accessible to individuals with disabilities to the maximum extent feasible. 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(2). Altering an area that contains a facility's primary function also requires adding making the paths of travel, bathrooms, telephones, and drinking fountains serving that area accessible to the maximum extent feasible. Id.

28. Here, Vons altered the Store in a manner that violated the ADA and was not readily accessible to the physically disabled public—including Kohler—to the maximum extent feasible.

Failure to Modify Existing Policies and Procedures

29. The ADA also requires reasonable modifications in policies, practices, or procedures, when necessary to afford such goods, services, facilities, or accommodations to individuals with disabilities, unless the entity can demonstrate that making such modifications would fundamentally alter their nature. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(ii).

30. Here, Vons violated the ADA by failing to make reasonable modifications in policies, practices, or procedures at the Store, when these modifications were necessary to afford (and would not fundamentally alter the nature of) these goods, services, facilities, or accommodations.

³ Nothing within this Complaint should be construed as an allegation that plaintiff is bringing this action as a private attorney general under either state or federal statutes.

Kohler v. Vons

Plaintiff's Complaint

1 39. He also seeks to enjoin Vons from violating the Disabled Persons
2 Act (and ADA) under California Civil Code § 55, and to recover reasonable
3 attorneys' fees and incurred under California Civil Code §§ 54.3 and 55.

4 VIII. THIRD CLAIM

5 Unruh Civil Rights Act

6 40. Kohler incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
7 through 30 for this claim.

8 41. California Civil Code § 51 states, in part, that: All persons within 9 the jurisdiction of this state are entitled to the full and equal accommodations, 10 advantages, facilities, privileges, or services in all business establishments of 11 every kind whatsoever.

12 42. California Civil Code § 51.5 also states, in part, that: No business 13 establishment of any kind whatsoever shall discriminate against any person in 14 this state because of the disability of the person.

15 43. California Civil Code § 51(f) specifically incorporates (by 16 reference) an individual's rights under the ADA into the Unruh Act.

17 44. Vons' aforementioned acts and omissions denied the physically
18 disabled public—including Kohler—full and equal accommodations,
19 advantages, facilities, privileges and services in a business establishment
20 (because of their physical disability).

21 45. These acts and omissions (including the ones that violate the ADA)
22 denied, aided or incited a denial, or discriminated against Kohler by violating the 23 Unruh Act.

24 46. Kohler was damaged by Vons' wrongful conduct, and seeks 25 statutory minimum damages of four thousand dollars ($4,000) for each offense.

26 47. Kohler also seeks to enjoin Vons from violating the Unruh Act (and 27 ADA), and recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred under 28 California Civil Code § 52(a).

IX. FOURTH CLAIM

Denial of Full and Equal Access to Public Facilities

48. Kohler incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 13 for this claim.

49. Health and Safety Code § 19955(a) states, in part, that: California public accommodations or facilities (built with private funds) shall adhere to the provisions of Government Code § 4450.

50. Health and Safety Code § 19959 states, in part, that: Every existing (non-exempt) public accommodation constructed prior to July 1, 1970, which is altered or structurally repaired, is required to comply with this chapter.

51. Kohler alleges the Store is a public accommodation constructed, altered, or repaired in a manner that violates Part 5.5 of the Health and Safety Code or Government Code § 4450 (or both), and that the Store was not exempt under Health and Safety Code § 19956.

52. Vons' non-compliance with these requirements at the Store aggrieved (or potentially aggrieved) Kohler and other persons with physical disabilities. Accordingly, he seeks injunctive relief and attorney fees pursuant to Health and Safety Code § 19953.

X. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Kohler prays judgment against Vons for:

1. Injunctive relief, preventive relief, or any other relief the Court deems proper.
2. Declaratory relief that Vons violated the ADA for the purposes of Unruh Act or Disabled Persons Act damages.
3. Statutory minimum damages under either sections 52(a) or 54.3(a) of the California Civil Code (but not both) according to proof.

4. Attorneys' fees, litigation expenses, and costs of suit.⁴
5. Interest at the legal rate from the date of the filing of this action.
